

Queen's Beach (Kapiolani Park)

This is not a nude beach. The beach is in Kapiolani Park at the end of Waikiki, towards Diamond Head. It's easy to find - just enter the park from Waikiki and walk along the beach. The Beach House Snack Bar is a good landmark to look for.

This beach used to be quite popular with the gay population but with the advent of social media it is not as well populated with the gay guys. Hula's is nearby. You might occasionally meet a cruiser since the beach is still listed in many publications as a gay beach.
